MINISTER ADMITS TAKING GIRL TO HOTEL AS "PLANT" FOR EVIDENCE

*Elmer L. Williams and Stool Pigeon Accused of Taking Young Wife To North Side Hotel Room—Girl
Forced To Sign Papers—Millionaire Porter Fined.*

Washington Porter was found guilty of owning property used for disorderly purposes and was fined $200. Motion for a new trial will be heard Monday.

There has been a strange case going on in our Morals Court—that clinic of human emotions. On one side stands a millionaire, Washington Porter, who is accused of owning property used for immoral purposes.

On the other hand there is a minister, a man who signs himself "Reverend" and preaches the story of the Magdalene on Sundays, but who admitted in open court he had brought a young married woman to a hotel as a trap.

Elmer L. Williams is the man. Williams, the same politician-minister who dragged a man and woman half-dressed down before a curious crowd at a meeting of the O'Hara vice commission
